

Our Correspondents.

Ezra

Fine weather.
Some corn planted.
Wheat, oats and meadows look well.

There will be an abundance of fruit in this community.

W. H. Rollins has been awarded the mail contract from Ezra to Higdon for the next four years.

James F. Miller and Jesse Harper are cutting wood for school district No. 6 this week.

John F. Miller made a business trip to Zion this week.

Rev. Hill preached at Pine Hill church the fourth Saturday night and Sunday. A Reader.

Old Trace Creek

Rain in abundance and corn planting much hindered.

Will Underwood is having chills and fevers.

J. H. Underwood is building a new house.

Several of the Trace creek boys went fishing Saturday, but had poor luck.

Jackson Miller visited at E. A. Murray's Sunday.

A few nights ago, while members of J. A. Goodson's family were at a telephone meeting some miscreant, a candidate for the penitentiary or a lynching, went to their farm and cut one ear off of a fine young mare and another from a good colt. The latter will probably die, as its ear was cut close to the head.

Trace creek people have organized a telephone company, with stockholders enough for a seven-mile line, which will have connection with the Castor and possibly other lines.

BOLIVAR.

Patton.

Health is good.

Our farmers are busy planting corn. Elisha Green and family visited at Levi Green's Friday night.

Ben Green recently bought a fine milk cow from Moses Brotherton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Green visited Ben Green and family Wednesday night.

Died—Roy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Seabaugh, at the home of his parents near this place April 28, 1911. The little fellow had been sick several months and just before the end came he asked his mother to pray for him. The remains were interred in the Seabaugh cemetery.

Benjamin Green sheared his flock of sheep a few days ago.

Bud Mayfield's family have about recovered from the measles.

Joe Green has been clearing some new ground.

Miss Caroline Green visited her sister, Mrs. Hannah Mayfield, Thursday night. SAM.

Zalma

Plenty of rain, although needed, is delaying farm work.

Trade seems to be lively with our local merchants.

Charles Corbin has engaged in the hotel business.

Leo Slinkard returned from St. Louis, where he had been for treatment, and says he feels much improved.

Dr. A. J. Speer is the recipient of a pet alligator. It is said to be of the kind which later in life acquire a fondness for negro babies.

Farmers are well along with their work. Wheat is making fine growth and some corn has been planted.

A. C. King, L. Kennison and P. Burton, with the assistance of eight or ten hounds, had several fox chases last week. They bagged some game and had a lot of sport.

Fishing is very poor this year. When the river will be turned into the big ditch we hope to have some of the Mississippi kind.

The new Methodist minister assigned to this place has resigned his work here, accepting more lucrative work to enable him to complete his college education.

Health is good, with few exceptions. JAY.

ALL persons subject to Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Dizziness, Heartburn, Vertigo (blind staggers), Poul Breath, Sallow Complexion or a constant tired, discouraged feeling should use

HERBINE

The Great Liver Tonic and Regulator That Has Done So Much for the Working People.

It is a marvelous remedy. Its stimulating effect on a Torpid Liver is little less than miraculous. It acts instantly. The first dose brings improvement, a few days' use cures the most obstinate case. Tired, weak, disheartened victims of a Torpid Liver are restored almost in a day. Herbine is a fine cleansing tonic for the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. It puts the system in perfect order, revives the Torpid Liver, strengthens digestion, clears the bowels of constipated conditions and re-establishes regular bowel movements.

Every home should have a bottle of this great regulating medicine. It stands for health for the whole family. All who are constipated, bilious or dyspeptic need its cleansing and renovating influence. It fortifies the body against Pneumonia, Malaria (Chills), Bright's Disease, Typhoid Fever, Yellow Fever or any other deadly disease that may be about.

Price 50c per Bottle.

JAMES F. BALLARD PROPRIETOR ST. LOUIS, MO.

For Sore Eyes, Granulated Lids, Redness of the Eyeball, Weak Sight, Smarting Sensations in the Eyes, use Stephens Eye Salve. It is a remedy of proven merit.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

ALL DRUGGISTS

Ladin

Our farmers are getting behind with their work on account of so much rain.

Moore's mill is ready for business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lubbers visited Herman Lubbers near Whitewater Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Moore, the mill man, went home at Bessville sick Wednesday.

William Strong was thrown from his wagon a few days ago, breaking several ribs. Since this accident he has developed a case of measles.

Misses Ida Berry and Clara Lubbers of near Barks chapel are visiting relatives and friends at Cape Girardeau.

Sam Yount killed six fine red-horse a few nights ago.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvy Patton came down to Barks chapel Saturday, where he preached Saturday night and Sunday.

Juan Sitze of near Marquand came down Saturday to look after his farming interests near here.

Miss Zettie Kinder has been visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Berry, near Barks chapel.

As there are no marriages, births or deaths to report I will close by wishing The Press and its staff of correspondents and many readers a long and happy life. ALGOMA.

Mayfield

With the exception of a few cases of measles health is good.

E. R. Mayfield visited at J. F. Mayfield's one night last week.

Tom Crites bought a drove of fine hogs in this vicinity last week.

B. C. Douglas had business at Patton Saturday.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Seabaugh April 27 and took from them their loving little 11-year-old boy.

E. R. Mayfield had business at Jackson one day last week.

Cleveland Hale of Bessville and Miss Ida Hanners of this vicinity were married April 9.

The school board met last Saturday and employed Johnny Mayfield to teach the ensuing term.

J. F. Mayfield and family have been very sick with measles the last two weeks.

Henry James had the misfortune to lose all his hogs a few nights ago.

F. J. Mayfield had business at Lutesville last week.

Singing has closed down on account of measles.

Mrs. W. D. Mayfield, who has had rheumatism, is improving.

The Watkins man was through here one day last week.

T. A. Green seems to have quite a lot of business at Mr. Fulton's.

Clarence Smith is working for E. R. Mayfield. MAYFIELD.

Glen Allen

We had fine rains, benefiting vegetation.

Several farmers are done planting corn.

Miss Nettie Crader and Mmes. Oscar Yount and Fred Ellis were shopping in Lutesville last Wednesday.

Nearly everybody went a-fishing Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Burfordville visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale Saturday night and Sunday.

J. H. Byrd of Deventer is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. B. McAlister, a few days.

Miss Myrtle Bollinger is visiting relatives in Jackson.

Wesley Moore, a prosperous farmer of Castor, was here Saturday.

Albert Miller of near town reports he has ripe strawberries.

I. N. Kirk has returned from St. Louis, where he went to purchase spring and summer goods.

J. M. Lawrence of Lodge was in town Saturday.

Editor F. A. Wiggs of the Lutesville Banner was here Friday.

F. M. Tallent of Lutesville had business here Saturday.

Charles Cooper is improving his property by putting a neat fence around it.

John Rhodes and wife were in Lutesville one day last week.

Julius Rhodes, who has employment at Zalma, visited home folks Sunday.

James London of Marquand was here this week and informed me that his town has organized a brass band and that the boys can already render some good music.

Mrs. M. Farrar of Marquand is here visiting her son, Dr. C. B. Farrar. MAYFLOWER.

Point Pleasant

As I have not seen any items from this part of the county in your paper I will try my hand at reporting.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Myers gave the young folks a party Monday night and all those who attended seemed to have a good time.

Miss Myrtle Hughes closed a very satisfactory term of school last Wednesday, returning home Thursday.

Asher Harris had the misfortune to lose a fine mare recently.

Services at Point Pleasant church the first Saturday night and Sunday of each month.

Miss Rose Vance is having a tussle with the chills.

Several of our young folks attended the singing at Walter Gray's Saturday night.

We are expecting a wedding in this locality soon.

Mrs. Dave Whitener of Castor spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hughes, here.

Mrs. Eaker and daughter, Miss Bessie, who have been visiting relatives in Illinois, returned home a few days ago.

Miss Rose Hughes has been quite sick, but is reported improving.

H. Myers has been employed as teacher of the Gregory school.

George Eaker was in Glen Allen Saturday.

Quite a number of the young people gathered at R. L. Vance's Sunday evening. Some excellent music was rendered and fine refreshments served.

Walter Gray makes frequent visits to this part of the county. I'm not meddling. Wait.

Miss Veda Yous of Bismarck was the guest of Misses Rose and Myrtle Hughes the latter part of last week.

E. H. Eaker makes frequent visits to Zephyr.

Frank Chronister sold a fine saddle horse recently.

The phone wires in this corner haven't time to rust.

Our neighborhood has an epidemic of mumps.

Miss Hattie Harris of Marble Hill visited home folks here.

There is talk of having an ice cream supper at our lodge hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Liley visited his brother Charles Liley Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Liley filled his regular Sunday appointment.

Owing to wet weather corn planting is delayed.

LITTLE DEWDROP.

Trowel

After a few weeks' vacation I will come back to THE PRESS with a few items.

Health fairly good.

Not much corn planted.

Wet weather is getting onto our nerves.

A. W. Wiseman of Cane creek was trying to buy a farm here one day last week.

Peter Eaker and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gaines, near Zalma.

A. R. Shell will crop with M. R. Shell this year.

J. M. Shell is sawing two carloads of lumber for the O'Neal company.

Ralph Wiseman has cleared a big newground.

Our J. P.'s and constable were the entire works last week—doing more business than three men ought to tackle.

Misses Ethel, Valle and Martha Shell visited Mrs. Caria Null last Sunday.

School ma'ams are so plentiful that it's real dangerous to throw timber.

I am informed that Miss Laura

DUE HERE SOON--A WORLD OF FLIES

Get your Screen Doors, Window Screens and Wire Cloth EARLY. We have Just Received our Spring Shipment and can fit your door and pocket book.

Lawn Mowers, Refrigerators and Ice Cream Freezers. We are headquarters for Furniture, Linoleums and Matting.

Ask for your Register Checks; they are Worth Money To You.

C. A. WALKER

Both 'Phones

LUTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Eaker will teach our next term of school.

We had quite a measles scare the last week.

Come on, "Blue Eyes," let us hear from you once more.

John Cobble, one of our Arkansas farmers, has purchased his old home and moved onto it. Gee! guess he rode the Arkansas mule too hard.

Peter H. Shell visits at W. H. Fowler's most every Sunday.

GREEN FUZ.

Lutesville News.

Miss Susie Pair of Shrum shopped here Saturday.

Crooked creek was full a day or two and fish ought to be plentiful.

Mrs. R. E. Upchurch of near Scopus went to St. Louis one day last week.

Mrs. Mary Keplinger visited at Glen Allen the latter part of last week.

Robert Eaker has moved from Dr. VanAmburg's to David Abernathy's place.

The carpenters began work on Hon. T. A. Caldwell's new residence Monday.

Mrs. Scott Burford visited relatives at Ladin Saturday, returning Monday.

C. B. Cunningham of Jackson visited relatives here last week, returning home Sunday.

Charles Lites was on our streets Saturday evening the first time since he was sick.

Next Monday, May 8, our I. O. O. F. hall will be dedicated. The occasion will be of much interest.

H. B. Cole now has his entire stock of merchandise moved to his new location in the I. O. O. F. building.

About twenty-two pupils are attending the subscription school recently opened by Miss Elsie Jones.

DeWitt Sawyer, a Cape county boy, was in town Monday in the interest of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co.

We had fine rains and much cooler weather for a day or two, but garden sassa, pastures and wheat are flourishing.

The band master and some of the boys worked on their stand Saturday and got it in condition to be used that evening.

Misses Bettie Hickam and Tots Berry are learning the telephone business from W. S. Lowe. Going to be "Hello girls."

"Tess and Ted," representing the Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe company, will entertain H. B. Cole's customers Saturday.

The Twin City band made some fine music Saturday evening, which was heartily enjoyed by a large number of our citizens.

"Grandma" Price and "Grandma" Burford visited relatives and friends at Gravel Hill Saturday, returning the middle of this week.

L. T. Kinder is having his store building repaired and re-decorated inside. Omer Lutes will embark in the mercantile business there as soon as the building is ready for occupancy.

Lutesville's stock pen has been completed and will be ready to corral cattle, hogs etc. not accompanied by a guardian. It is located on the old slaughter-house lot, below Burford's store.

YELLOW JACKET.

Crooked Creek

The farmers have been delayed in corn planting by rain.

"Uncle Sam" Hawn, who has been an invalid several years, doesn't improve.

There are a few cases of measles in this vicinity.

Charley Wallis, who has been attending college at Marble Hill, came home Saturday and is all broke out.

The singing school at Mt. Carmel was suspended a few weeks for want of books, but has started again.

Everett Tallent is teaching a singing school at Pleasant valley.

Several of our farmers are running over their corn ground with new disc harrows.

Will Whitener has a new buggy.

The stork left a fine boy baby with Mr. and Mrs. William Gruner a few days ago.

Jesse Rhodes had business in Marble Hill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Juan Henderson visited on Shetley creek Saturday and Sunday.

George Marshall and family visited at Patton Saturday and Sunday.

Alex. Pulliam and family visited at G. W. Standiford Saturday night and Sunday.

Fred Mabuce, who has been working for R. L. Robinson at Patton, visited home folks and his best girl Sunday.

We had a formidable rain, and some hail Sunday.

Columbus Tremham has moved to John Starkey's.

The creek was out of bank Sunday evening and washed away a whole lot of fence and some dirt.

JEXEMEC.

DR. C. M. WITMER,

Marble Hill, Mo.

Office in Drug Store.

G. Burette Snider,

Notary Public and Conveyancer.

Office in Bank of Marble Hill, MARBLE HILL, MO.

W. H. Cunningham,

Jeweler

Has moved to Marble Hill and is located in Dunn's Store. If you want your clock, watch or jewelry repaired, give him a call. He keeps a fine line of optical goods. Eyes tested free of charge.

H. L. MILLER,

The Jeweler

Has moved his office into the new building by the Drug Store and will be pleased to supply your needs in anything in his line. All kinds of repair work done on watches, clocks, jewelry, sewing machines etc. Give him a call.

Lutesville, Mo